Week 7

WC 14th November

Day	Teams	Result
Monday	Rhydlewis v Tygwydd	6 - 2
Wednesday	Tygwydd v Penrhiwllan	2 - 6
Thursday	Caerwedros v Mydroilyn	8 - 0
Thursday	Dolphins v Aberporth	0 - 8
Thursday	Orllwyn v Llandygydd	Postponed
Thursday	Rhydlewis v Capel Dewi	6 - 2
Friday	Llechryd v Manordeifi	2 - 6

Match report: Caerwedros 8 – Mydroilyn 0

Caerwedros eased to a comfortable home win which was never as easy as the score line suggests. Gavin Jones reverted to the singles and played well, which he needed to do against stubborn opposition from John Atkinson. Lynda Evans was in fine form again to skip the pairs to a good win. The home triple were never dominant in their match, but managed to win anyway, whilst John G. Evans skipped his four to a commanding victory, rattling up 13 points on the first 2 ends. It seems to be either famine or feast for Caerwedros just lately!

Barry Davies, Captain of Caerwedros

Match report: Dolphins 0 – Aberporth 8

The best game of the evening for the Dolphins was the singles where Eileen & Richard played some brilliant ends. Richard won 11 – 7, but the result didn't reflect the quality of play by both players – well done.

Jean Bond, Captain of the Dolphins

Match report: Llechryd 2 – Manordeifi 6

Manordeifi got off to a good start in the singles winning the first 4 ends to lead by nine. Although Llechryd fought back, and there were some tight ends, Manordeifi won comfortably. The pairs ran a similar course; the score being 6 - 0 to Manordeifi after 4 ends. Llechryd gradually came back to make an exciting deciding end, with Manordeifi taking it and winning by one point. In the triples it was Llechryd making a good start but, again, it was all on the last end with Llechryd needing 3 to draw, but only making one. In the rinks, Llechryd kept their noses in front all the way. Manordeifi took a 5 on the penultimate end but it was not enough and gave Llechryd the two points of the evening.

Pauline Palmer, Secretary of Llechryd
