Match report: Penrhiwllan 4 – Manordeifi 4

In the singles, Steve Reynolds dominated the game for Manordeifi and cruised home to win. The pairs was a more even game, with Manordeifi never racing ahead, but maintaining control to win by a comfortable margin.

The home team were much steadier in the second half of the match, never giving either the visiting triples or fours a look in.

Match report: Llechryd 3 – Rhydlewis 5

Llechryd got off to a good start in the singles, leading 7 - 1 after the fourth end. Rhydlewis fought back to 10 - 7 in favour of Llechryd going into the last end. Rhydlewis managed a three to make it a draw.

The pairs was a close game, both teams taking one or two points on each end until Rhydlewis pulled away and went on to win the game.

Rhydlewis made a good start taking 4 on the first end of the triples. It was a bit of a struggle against the experience of Rhydlewis for Llechryd, but they did take a well-deserved 4 on the 7th end to make the score more respectable.

In the fours, Llechryd scored well at the start with 3 on the second end. They played well, keeping Rhydlewis at bay. By the 7th end, Llechryd were still 6 points ahead. Rhydlewis fought back to take 5 making a more even score. On the last end, both sides had the chance to win but Llechryd held on.
